The Qura'nic Verse of Hilya and Capability of Woman's Judgment

Abedin Momeni*

Assistant Professor University of Tehran

(Received: 21 February 2006, Accepted: 14 March 2007)

Abstract

The Prevailing view among Islamic sects negates the capability of women for becoming judges. They appeal to the Qura'nic verse of hilya, based on which women are raised in the ornament and are ghayr mobin, i.e., are incapable of overcoming in debates. On the contrary, another interpretation asserts that being raised in the ornament is not a deficient and ghayr mobin means in fighting and not in debates.

Keywords woman, capability, judging, hilya, ghayr mobin, deficiency.
